If you or any of your loved ones are looking for high-quality companionship, personal assistance, meal preparation, assistance with medication, specialist dementia care or any other medical conditions, please feel free to get in touch.

All our staff are fully trained and committed to work towards the general well-being of our Clients, always taking into account individuality, cultural background and values.

The aim of Bloomfield Care is to deliver person centred care and support our clients in their own home with daily activities, to a standard which embraces the fundamental principles of good care practice.
